

MACC Meeting

May 7, 2014

Welcome & Introductions

- Pledge of Allegiance Recited
- Group introductions

Treasurer Report & Review of Minutes

- $225 collected from Easter Egg Hunt
- $120 collected from Yard Sale
- $581 paid for newsletter printing
- $2,950 still pending from City grant

➤ Motion to approve reports – seconded; unanimously approved

Membership

(Allison McLaren)

- 108 Members
- $2,040 in membership dues
- New Business Sponsorship from Shear Sensations
- 15 Premiere Members, remaining are Plus and Basic

Events

Easter Egg Hunt (Nan Pischke)

- 58 Children were registered, 5 no-shows, 17 came day-of
- 5 volunteers from St. Raphael's
- Most children were from Morningside
- $225 collected at door

Earth Day Cleanup (Lisa Petrilli)

- 37 bags of trash collected
- Local cub scout troop participated
- October 18th will be next cleanup
- Christi Pampena won drawing for $50 gift card

Yard Sale (Mike Hellman)

- Event will be held on May 31st, June 1st
- Registrations due May 15th
- 30 Homes currently registered
- No additional cost for two days

Morningside Mile (Emily Keebler)

- Comedy night will be August 1st or 15th
- Honoree selected – Mother of Vietnam Vet, Frances Coletta
- Family will be representing
- Son wrote poem about hamburger Hill at VFW
- Charity is yet to be determined

Project 15206

(Ali Mabel)

- 116 Rain container being offered to community
- 400 Houses so far involved in zip code
- Consultation visits for rain barrels already underway

Housing

(Ben Kelley)

- Zoning hearing on proposed parking lot at end of Morningside Ave.
- Neighborhood concerns center on safety and loss of street parking
- No news on sale of Morningside school

Communications

(Heather Mediate)

- New communications chair replacing Christine Cato
- Served on Union Project Board, in Morningside since 2003
- Senior clinical marketing specialist
- Familiar with social media applications, website updates
- Would like to see vertical response to clients

Old Business

- N/A

New Business

- Swan Way disintegrating – Public Works needs to be engaged
- Discussion of mirror on Baker St. – City will not implement as policy
- Garrett Cooper resigning Vice President position of MACC - will continue Merry Morningside

Adjourn

- Motion to adjourn – unanimously approved

Minutes prepared by Jared Delaney, Treasurer